William Alden White May Support Wilson

TOPEKA, Kan. June 8-Reports that William Alden White Progressive national committeeman for Kansas, is preparing to become a Democrat and an out-and-out supporter of President Wilson, form the newest sensation in political circles at Topeka. On his return from California White unreservedly indorsed the policies of President Wilson, particularly with reference to the tariff. This practically is a break with Senator Bristow and Congressman Murdock, as both are opposing the Wilson tariff policies

|PENROSE STARTS ON ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Former Field Marshal of Keystone State Has to "Hustle' Because of Direct Elections.

Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, former Republican boss and field marshal of all the bosses in the Keystone State, latterly supposed to belong to the Down-and-Out Club, may get a new lease of political life. Senator Penrose has begun a most active campaign for re-election.

Generally speaking. Senator Penrose has not been obliged to get out and run would like to know where Lieutenant Governor Morris stands, especially those closely associated with Governor McGovern, whose aspirations are said to be divided between the Senatorial togardan another sitting in the gubernatorial chair.

McGovern is believed to prefer the Senatorship, but failure of the La Follette Legislature to pass some of his pet bills at the present session leaves a fight on McGovern's hands to have these laws put on the statute books, and he may decide it will require another term as governor to accomplish it.

has not been obliged to get out and run for office. All that has been necessary was to carefully oil up the gearings of the machine, start it, and the work was done. But now the machine is in bad order, numerous cogs are smashed, and the whole thing rattles. The direct elections amendment to the Constitution requires Senator Penrose to go out on the stump and take his chances with other candidates, and he has already et out to do it.

Pennsylvania is peculiarly a State which is supposed to have affection for the protective tariff. Senator Penrose understands this, and he is seeking to return to the Senate on the wave of sentiment which he believes will run against the Underwood-Wilson tariff measure when it is enacted.

Senator Penrose is already making numerous speeches in Pennsylvania, pointing out what he rates as the iniquities of the tariff bill, and getting the foundation for his campaign laid. It would be a source of much chagrin to many of the progressive Republicans and various anti-machine elements of other parties if Penrose were to return to the Senate. Some of the progressive Republicans think it would hinder reorganization of the Republican party. However, if Senator Penrose should be re-elected, it will be due to causes more or less local to his State, to the attachment of Pennsylvania to tariff, and to the interesting personality of the man who so long bossed the State and who is admitted even by his enemies to be Senator Penrose is already making who so long bossed the State and who is admitted even by his enemies to be no ordinary fighter.

On the Democratic side, Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer is handling the Pennsylvania patronage and otherwise laying his plans to get himself elected to the Senate. Palmer, though in close alliance with the Underwood forces in the House, has the stamp of approval of the Wilson Administration.

Lieut. Gov. Morris May Be in U. S. Senate Race

LA CROSSE, Wis., June 8.-Lieut. Gov. Thomas Morris, of LaCrosse, may be a candidate for the United States Senate. Then again, he may become a candidate for governor to succeed Francis E. McGovern. He will not say which. In either event he will have the solid backing of the La Follette faction. The question is agitating the politicians of Wisconsin, and many of them would like to know where Lleutenant
